

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 1, 2016

Jackie Garcia
212.760.9600 x0214

MADISON SQUARE BOYS & GIRLS CLUB ELECTS NEW BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEMBERS LEO ARNABOLDI III, STEPHANIE DIAMOND, AND PETER SERPICO

(November 1, 2016)—The Madison Square Boys & Girls Club Board of Trustees announced today that it elected three new Board of Trustees Members – Leo Arnaboldi III, Stephanie Diamond, and Peter Serpico.

Madison’s Executive Director Joseph Patuleia said of the announcement, “We are proud to welcome these talented and dedicated individuals to our Board. They will continue the tradition of providing exceptional leadership as we work to advance our mission of saving and enhancing the lives of New York City youth who need us most.” Mr. Patuleia continued, “We are excited to have these outstanding professionals join the Madison family and look forward to working with them in the coming years.”

Leo Arnaboldi III, Partner, Ropes & Gray LLP

Leo Arnaboldi III is a partner at the law firm of Ropes & Gray LLP where he primarily practices tax law. He joined Ropes & Gray in 2003 when his prior law firm, Reboul, MacMurray, Hewitt & Maynard, combined with Ropes & Gray. Leo was at Reboul MacMurray from 1991 to 2003. Prior to Reboul MacMurray, Leo was an associate at Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP from 1985 to 1991. He is a graduate of Amherst College and Harvard Law School.

Leo Arnaboldi III was exposed to Madison at an early age by his father, Leo Jr., a long-time Madison board member. He worked as a full-time volunteer at the former Madison Clubhouse on the Lower East Side for two years in high school. Leo would like to re-engage with Madison and make a contribution to the lives of the same type of at risk children he worked with forty years ago.

Leo is a recently appointed board member of Pathways, Inc., which operates four residences and a day center in Greenwich, CT for clients suffering from mental illness. He is also a Board member of US board of the Tony Blair African Governance Initiative, the former co-head of Amherst Annual Fund at Amherst College, and the former Co-Chair of Board at the Diller-Quaile School of Music, Inc.

Leo Arnaboldi III is married to Nicole Sinek Arnaboldi. They have four sons and reside in New York City.

(more)

Stephanie Diamond, Managing Director, Charitable Planning Strategies, Schwab Charitable

Stephanie Diamond partners with wealth managers and clients on the U.S. East Coast to explore and implement charitable planning strategies. She brings more than 12 years of financial services experience working directly with investment advisers, work that is supported by her background developing educational programs for family offices and advisor practices at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc.

Before coming to Schwab Charitable, Ms. Diamond served as a Vice President at Goldman Sachs. Stephanie recently completed training with the philanthropic consultancy 21/64 in Developing a Philanthropic Identity as well as the Foundations of Family Therapy at the Ackerman Institute for the Family. She has served on the board of the Jewish Community Federation in San Francisco and is currently a member of the Boston Estate Planning Council. She holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Pennsylvania.

Peter Serpico, CEO/Principal, Omnibuild

Peter Serpico grew up in the blue-collared Bronx as a 1st Generation Italian, and being an entrepreneur was all he knew. Post high school and while he worked on his various pursuits, Peter took night classes at NYU, studying Construction Management and Law.

Peter built and operated over forty restaurants in regional shopping centers across the United States and into Hawaii. He then segued that knowledge into starting and running a construction management firm, Omnibuild Construction, in New York City, a company that is now recognized on the ENR Top 400 and Inc. 500 lists.

While this $200 million company takes up most of Peter's weekday hours, he focuses most of his monetary donations and free time towards various education programs near his Englewood, New Jersey community. When he's not working or donating his time, Peter enjoys travelling whenever possible, whether it's skiing in Europe, sailing and fishing on the high seas or relaxing at the beach. When he's not traveling, you'll find Peter playing golf or just spending some quiet time with his wife and daughter at home.

Madison Square Boys & Girls Club: Since 1884, Madison has been saving and enhancing the lives of youth by providing youth development services for children in New York City's most disadvantaged communities. Programs are engineered to empower each member to achieve three priority outcomes: Academic Success, Good Character & Citizenship, and the adoption of a Healthy Lifestyle. Every day, Madison provides thousands of children with a safe and positive environment, one where fun is encouraged and positive role models are plentiful. A founding member of Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Madison currently serves more than 5,000 youth, ages 6 to 18, at four Clubhouses throughout Brooklyn and the Bronx. www.madisonsquare.org

###